Edith M. Carleton

Jul 9, 2015

CORINTH | Edith M. Carleton, 78, of Ash Street, passed away Sunday, July 5, 2015, at Saratoga Hospital following a short illness.

Born July 23, 1936, in Corinth, she was the daughter of the late Charles and Mayra (Connolly) Carter.

Edith attended school in Corinth.

She married Erwin J. Carleton on Feb. 25, 1956, in Corinth. The couple resided in Lake Luzerne for several years. He died June 4, 1989. Edith then lived in Corinth for several years.

Edith worked as a private home health aide for many years for several families in Lake Luzerne, and also was employed at Lake Luzerne Community Center for several years.

She attended the former Corinth Wesleyan Church and the First Presbyterian Church of Corinth, and was a member of the Memories on Wheels Car Club.

Edith enjoyed going to the Barn in Corinth to listen to music, going to Bingo games, was an avid walker and enjoyed visiting with her friends throughout the village of Corinth.

Besides her husband and her parents, she was predeceased by her longtime companion and friend, Arthur Brunelle; one son, Clarence Carleton; one brother, James Fitzpatrick; and five sisters, Ethel Fayette, Katherine Fisk, Edna Lucia, Kathy Harris and Nellie Rexford.

Survivors include eight children, Lois Burt (Stephen) of Corinth, Warren Carleton (Teresa) of Glens Falls, Colleen Mosher (George) of Lake Luzerne, Rhonda Moran of Glens Falls, Linda Ovitt of Johnstown, May Ann Riley (Peter) of Corinth, Martin Carleton (Teresa Purdy) of Acworth, Georgia, and Elizabeth Johnson (Sterling) of Wilton; 14 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

A memorial service was held Thursday, July 9, at Densmore Funeral Home Inc., 7 Sherman Ave., Corinth, with the Rev. Dexter Taylor officiating.

Burial was at Corinth Rural Cemetery.

The family suggests that memorials take the form of donations to Beacon Pointe, 1 Emma Lane, Clifton Park, NY, 12065.
